Bomb Case Takes New Turn

'Soviet Parliament Ratifies Troop Cut

Unanimous Vote Backs Khrush Plan

Lawmakers Of All Other Nations Are Urged To Make Cuts

MOSCOW (AP) — The Soviet Parliament ratified Premier Nikita Khrushchev's military manpower reduction plan Friday and urged the lawmakers of all other nations to cut their armed forces too. The vote of the 1,300 deputies was unanimous.

Khrushchev drew clamorous applause in a final talk on behalf of his proposal to trim 1,200,000 men from the Soviet armed forces in the next year or two and maintain a strong defense by the increasing perfection of atomic, hydrogen and rocket weapons.

"All the people who spoke on my report and on the draft law expressed their approval," the Premier said, bracing his arms forcefully on the rostrum at the windup of the day's discussion. "I ask you to approve this resolution."

Never In Doubt

The House of Nationalities voted first. Then the House of the Union cast its vote. The outcome was never in doubt.

This special session of Parliament, the Supreme Soviet, then adjourned without taking up any other business. The deputies, convened only Thursday, scattered in plenty of time to attend a gala performance of Prokofiev's opera, "War and Peace" at the Bolshoi Theater.

The call to all world parliaments to heed the Soviet example was directed particularly to those "having the largest number of armed forces." Among these are the United States, Britain, and France and, in the Communist sphere, Red China.

This was the clincher on a program proposed, with suitable attention to propaganda effects, to reduce Soviet military payrolls one-third to a proclaimed goal of 2,423,000; put the demobilized in industry and agriculture; rely on nuclear age arms to offset the reduction in conventional forces.

Deputy Premier Mikhail A. Suslov introduced his appeal after Foreign Minister Andrei A. Gromyko and others had laid the groundwork in speeches on behalf of disarmament.

Serve As Example

"The Soviet Union expresses its hope that this new unilateral reduction of its armed forces will serve as an example to other states and particularly to those having the largest number of armed forces," the key section said.

"It therefore appeals to the parliaments of all countries to respond to the initiative of the Soviet Union and undertake practical steps to reduce their armed forces."

Two of the country's top scientists — Alexander Nesmeyanov, president of the Academy of Sciences, and thermodynamic expert Igor V. Kurchatov — spoke in support of the plan. Kurchatov discussed the East-West disagreement at Geneva over the detection of underground nuclear tests.

Jobs Increase With End Of Steel Strike

WASHINGTON (AP)—With the steel strike ended, more Americans held jobs last month than in any previous December.

The Labor Department said Friday employment climbed by 59,000 to a record 65,699,000 for the month as workers, furloughed because of the 116-day steel strike, flocked back to factories and other plants.

The jobless roster decreased by 93,000 last month to a total of 3,577,000. Taking seasonal factors into account, the ratio of unemployed to the total work force fell from 5.6 per cent in November to 5.2 per cent in December.

These developments ran against the usual trend in December—normally employment goes down by about 700,000 and unemployment rises by about 100,000 in that final month of the year.

Recovery from the steel strike had other effects on the nation's workers—chiefly, more overtime and fatter paychecks as industries drove to regain lost ground.

A Labor Department official forecast continued improvement in the job situation as more laid off workers are recalled. Seymour Wolfbein, deputy assistant secretary of labor, said about 650,000 persons—not counting the 500,000 strikers—were forced to the sidelines at one time or another because of the steel shutdown whose effects spread far and wide.

$238,000 Robbery

LONDON (AP)—Bandits armed with a bunch of keys let themselves quietly into a bank in Hackney suburb during the night and helped themselves to 85,000 pounds—$238,000—worth of banknotes. It was London's biggest bank robbery in years.

2 Look-Alike Gunmen Rob Bank Of $22,245

SOMERVILLE, Mass. (UPI)—Two look-alike gunmen cowed bank employees with revolvers and threats Friday in a $22,245 holdup.

One of the robbers lounged on a window sill near the door while his companion scooped up the cash from the tellers, drawers, scattering hundreds of dollars on the floor as he stuffed currency in a paper bag.

They fled in a two-car relay, each car driven by an accomplice.

The robbers were dressed in identical light gray raincoats and brown porkpie hats.

Quakes Again Rock Peru

LIMA, Peru. (AP) — Earth shocks continued to rock widespread areas of Peru Friday. Reports of damage grew from three days of earthquakes, mostly in the mountainous south.

Latest reports through disrupted communications put the death toll at 27. All but one of the victims was at Arequipa, hit hardest on Wednesday. The other death was reported in Camana, a small port 80 miles west of Arequipa.

Original reports, still unconfirmed, had put the death toll as high as 61 in Arequipa and its suburbs, plus another 30 in the village of Chugubama nearby.

Arequipa had more shocks Friday. Frightened inhabitants ran onto the streets, but no new damage was reported.

Reports from Ica Province in the south said four people were injured in the collapse of a building.

Relatively mild shocks were felt during the predawn hours in Lima, and some residents of the capital had spent the night in the streets.

Strong shocks also were felt at Ancon, an ocean resort about 25 miles north of here, and at Nasca, a southwestern mountain town where large sections were destroyed by a 1942 quake.

Additional reports of Wednesday's quake said 80 per cent of the buildings at Palpa, also in the south, were damaged. No deaths were reported.

Lady Pamela Hicks Takes It In Stride

LONDON (UPI)—Lady Pamela Hicks said Friday she didn't in the least mind Prince Philip's saying at her wedding Wednesday that "it's a great joy to us all that she has finally gotten married."

"Nobody could possibly have taken offense," she said. "I have always been teased about not being able to make up my mind."

When I did finally get engaged, the prince's mother said, "Oh, I've heard that before."

Succeeds D'Orsa

BERLIN (UPI)—Brig. Gen. Charles E. Johnson, of Columbia, S.C., Friday succeeded Brig. Gen. Charles S. D'Orsa of New York City, as U.S. troop commander in Berlin. D'Orsa has been named commander of the Combat Development Experimentation Center at Ford Ord, Calif.

Nehru Rejects Policy Change On Alliances

BANGALORE, India (AP) — Seething because of some expressed opposition, Prime Minister Nehru irately rejected Friday any suggestion that India's policy against military alliances be changed.

"Whatever the consequences," he declared, he is not going to call on foreign armies to help out against the Chinese Communists. His Congress party backed him up with a unanimous vote.

Two speakers at the party's annual convention here had proposed deleting the foreign policy section of a resolution restating India's traditional policy of non-alignment with East or West.

Kali Mukherji of West Bengal, who made the proposal, explained he did not mean India should enter military pacts or seek military aid now—as has been suggested since Communist China began claiming large chunks of India's northern territory.

"I want to get our minds free of binding ties and encumbrances of pledges never to seek aid," Mukherji said. "India has to be ready to get foreign military help if the situation requires."

Nehru marched up to the speaker's platform, his face clouded with anger.

"I say whatever the consequences, we will not have foreign armies on our soil," he snapped. "To be realistic, no country in the world can help us on the frontier."

Nehru insisted that India's long and rugged northern frontier can be ably defended.

"The moment the Indian army cannot do so," he declared, "Indian freedom is lost."

Nehru lectured his party on the value of the nonalignment policy and said it had carried India's name high all over the world. He said that other countries have joined alliances and had been weakened rather than strengthened by them.

Heart Diseases Top Killer

CHICAGO (UPI)—A study made at the University of Colorado indicated Friday that the major causes of death among persons over 80 were diseases of the heart and blood vessels. Dr. R. M. Mulligan, of the department of pathology in the university's school of medicine, said an evaluation of fatal disease of old age should aid doctors in anticipating and treating ailments among elderly patients at an earlier and more amenable stage.

Blames Agriculture

WASHINGTON (UPI)—Sen. Stuart Symington says poor management by the Agriculture Department helped cause the cost of administering price support programs to jump 1,000 per cent from 1952 to 1958.

Symington (Mo.), a Democratic presidential prospect, said the "shockingly high" costs jumped from 34 million dollars in 1952 to 364 million dollars in 1958. He blamed the "relative dilution of authority and responsibility" in the department.

Baby Carriage Dilapidated, Sags In Wrong Places

PHILADELPHIA (UPI) — It wasn't exactly a bottle-baby Ralph Jordan wheeled along the sidewalk Friday.

Patrolman John Easterday thought the baby carriage was dilapidated, and sagged at the wrong places. He took a look inside and found 17 bottles of whisky stolen from a nearby taproom.

Jordan, 38, was charged with burglary and larceny.

Storms Take Heavy Toll Of Life In Europe

LONDON (UPI)—A blanket of snow and ice lay over Europe Friday, isolating villages, marooning travelers and taking a heavy toll of human life. The forecast was for worse to come.

More than 150 deaths from the weather were reported from Norway to Spain since the cold wave set in last Sunday. A United Press International Survey showed.

The Royal Automobile Club in London said road conditions in the storm-swept British Isles were the worst since the disastrous winter of 1947. Drifts six feet deep were reported in Yorkshire and Kent. Many communities in Kent were marooned.

Storms at sea hampered shipping. The Cunard liner Queen Elizabeth, outward bound to New York on its final winter journey was a day late because it could not enter the harbor at Cherbourg, France, to pick up continental passengers. Waves as high as 45 feet pounded the Cherbourg sea wall.

In usually sunny Italy, hailstones pelted St. Peter's Square in the Vatican. Earth tremors on the Mediterranean coast near Naples forced the removal of 400 persons, half of them children.

In Amsterdam, Holland, where a dike broke in a suburb Thursday, authorities reported that a resulting flood killed one person among the 10,000 who fled to high ground and safety. The 12-foot breach in the dike was sealed Friday afternoon.

The cold gripping Paris prevented the famed Les Halles Market from receiving more than one-third of the fresh food deliveries for the city. The forecast for Paris was temperature around the five-degree mark.

Hundreds of motorists were reported stranded on the continent.

It snowed on the Mediterranean resort island of Majorca.

Bitter cold in Germany claimed more than 28 lives, including that of 92-year-old Maria Dorfner, who fell in her garden in Munich and froze to death when nobody heard her cries for help.

Poisoned Salt Shakers Intended To Scare

MUNICH, Germany (UPI) — Whoever put the poison in saltshakers in Radio Free Europe's cafeteria last month did not intend to kill anyone, the Bavarian state prosecutor's office said Friday.

A spokesman said a thorough investigation of the poison scare, taken for a mass murder scheme at the time, indicated the object of the poisoning was to "scare rather than kill."

The plot was discovered before anyone in the American-sponsored Radio Free Europe headquarters could be hurt.

On short notice, the President left a rainy Washington by jet plane at 10:15 a.m., and landed here at Turner Air Force Base.

A Strategic Air Command field command arrived at 40 minutes later. Eisenhower came to this piney woods country of southwest Georgia as the guest of wealthy oilman W. Alton Jones, board chairman of the Cities Service Co.

The President plans to stay until Sunday at Jones' Blue Springs plantation home, a beautiful three-story white frame place overlooking the hunting grounds.

The President, in a jovial mood, was accompanied by two other old friends—George E. Allen, Washington businessman; and Charles Jones, head of the Richfield Oil Co. of California.

There was no announcement of his travel plans until about an hour and a half before he took off. Because of the short notice, the President invited three reporters and two photographers to ride with him on his jet. Other newsmen arranged to follow on another plane later in the day.

Eisenhower had remarked that he had no intention of making any government news during his weekend stay.

Fresh Blood Found In Car Of LSU Dean

Mickey Suspended From Post; Police Say Alibi False

BATON ROUGE, La. (AP) — Police said Friday fresh human blood of the same type as Dr. Margaret Rosamond McMillan had been found in the auto owned by Dr. George H. Mickey, internationally known scientist charged with murder in her death.

Dist. Atty. J. St. Clair Favrot also told a news conference that Mickey, who has been suspended from his post as dean of the Louisiana State University graduate school here, "was definitely not at home all Saturday night" when Dr. McMillan was killed by 13 savage blows on the head.

Friends For Years

Dr. Mickey, widely known for his work in genetics (science of heredity), had been friends for many years with the 39-year-old woman, who taught at LSU's New Orleans branch.

Sheriff Bryan Clemmons and Favrot said in a joint statement that "laboratory examination of Dr. Mickey's automobile revealed spots of fresh human blood of the same type as that of the deceased."

The statement also said Dr. Mickey's alibi for the night of the killing "was thoroughly checked and found to be without any foundation."

Louisiana State University suspended Dr. Mickey as dean of its graduate school because "the district attorney of East Baton Rouge Parish has advised that a charge of murder has been filed" against him.

Mickey, 49, broke down and cried in jail Friday. It was the first time in the six-day investigation that Mickey lost control of his emotions.

His wife and son, Don, 19, and the family minister, the Rev. William E. Trice, visited Mickey for the first time since his arrest. They stayed only a few minutes and officers said Mickey was composed during the visit.

Biology Professor

The beating victim was a biology professor at LSU in New Orleans, a branch of the university. Her body was found Sunday morning on a rural road near the Mississippi River about six miles south of the LSU campus south of Baton Rouge.

The death weapon has not been found but officers believe it might be a tire iron.

They said they learned Dr. McMillan told neighbors last Saturday that she had a date for that night.

Yelping Dogs Greet Ike

ALBANY, Ga. (AP)—Yelping bird dogs greeted a smiling President Eisenhower Friday on his arrival at a 14,000-acre plantation for a weekend of quiet shooting.

On short notice, the President left a rainy Washington by jet plane at 10:15 a.m., and landed here at Turner Air Force Base.

A Strategic Air Command field command arrived at 40 minutes later. Eisenhower came to this piney woods country of southwest Georgia as the guest of wealthy oilman W. Alton Jones, board chairman of the Cities Service Co.

Ice And Snow Closes Schools, Clogs Highways

By The Associated Press

Ice coated streets and highways from the Great Lakes area into New England Friday resulting in scores of collisions and stalled vehicles. And, snow-clogged roads in Colorado kept 30 schools closed.

At least two persons were killed as a result of the ice-slicked roads in the Northeast.

In Connecticut, New York and New Jersey freezing rain glazed the highways and slowed traffic to a crawl. Some schools were forced to close. On turnpike bridges near Newark, N.J., alone about 30 vehicles were involved in smashups in a two-hour period.

More snow was expected by night in a band stretching from the southern Great Lakes region into northern and western New York. The forecasters said the rain during the night may not freeze along the southern coast of New England.

In the Midwest, Milwaukee reported 6 inches and Muskegon, Mich., 5 inches early Friday.

Near Hazel Green, Wis., the St. Norbert College basketball team spent a cold six hours in a bus stalled by a sneak snowstorm. The bus was on the way to Dubuque, Iowa, from Whitewater, Wis.

Traffic was halted at Janesville, Wis., as strong winds piled up hazardous drifts. Cars were stalled on many roads from Prairie du Chien, Wis., through Columbus to Port Washington on Lake Michigan. Up to 9 inches of snow fell in Milwaukee.

Occasional rain or showers fell in the Ohio Valley and through Pennsylvania, southern New England and the Carolinas.

Elsewhere, a few showers were scattered from Southern California into Arizona while snow fell from most sections of the Rocky Mountain states into the Pacific Northwest.

Sunshine, mixed with occasional clouds, stretched from the plains and the Mississippi Valley into the Gulf states.

Seeks Membership

LONDON (UPI)—Cyprus asked Britain Friday for Commonwealth membership when the Mediterranean island colony becomes an independent republic Feb. 19.

Capt. Arthur Schroeder of Pasadena, Tex., Sgt. Theodore Nara-saki, Richmond, Calif., and Airman 1. C. Gary Standfill, Lowell, Ore. Smith had flown to Station Charley earlier in the week to help with the evacuation, but the others had been there most of the time.

Station Charley was set up originally when the ice floe was about 2x4 miles. A runway was prepared and shelters were set up.

"Right now, the place is only about one and a quarter miles by a little more than one and a half miles," said Capt. Smith.

About 200,000 pounds of equipment also was brought out, along with personnel, during the week. But the structures set up as living quarters, stripped of their contents, will be allowed to sink when the floe finally breaks up.

Suspect Said Involved In Shady Deals

Attorney Who Died In Plane Crash Lost $600,000 Last Year

NEW YORK (AP) — A morbid, moody lawyer, heavily insured and suspected of blowing up a Miami-bound airliner with a suicide bomb, was revealed Friday as enmeshed in a web of questionable financial deals.

The attorney, Julian A. Frank, 32, of Westport, Conn., reportedly had lost as much as $600,000 last year in stock transactions and financial deals.

Frank's background and the suspicions already voiced against him raised a question of sheer horror in its impact—Was what at first seemed like a tragic airline accident costing 34 lives in reality the fruit of a diabolical plot in which the plane's passengers were innocent pawns?

Frank was among the 34 who died Jan. 6 when an explosion sent a National Airlines DC6B plunging to earth near Bolivia, N.C. But for a twist of fate Frank would have been on another airliner with 112 persons aboard.

Two Complaints

The Manhattan district attorney's office said two separate complaints had been lodged against Frank in less than a year. They alleged his misuse of more than $200,000 entrusted to him for legal dealings and charitable work.

If proven, the charges could have cost Frank his right to practice law and wrecked a career which he boasted was reaping him fabulous sums of money.

"Julian wanted to make a lot of money fast to protect his family," a friend said of the lawyer, who practiced in New York.

Frank was insured for nearly $900,000 when he boarded the Miami-bound airliner at Idlewild Airport. After the plane disintegrated mysteriously, his body was found several miles from the crash scene—where it could have been hurled by a suicide bomb that caused the total destruction moments later of the big aircraft. The body also bore the type of mutilations which could have been caused by a bomb.

Bomb Of Some Sort

During a hearing in Washington Thursday before the Senate Aviation subcommittee, Sen. A. S. Mike Monroney (D-Okla.) declared: "I am convinced a bomb of some sort was the cause of this disaster. It seems pretty pat that this bomb was carried into the washroom in the plane and set off deliberately. The evidence is very strong that it was a case of suicide by bombing."

In Frank's 10-room, $45,000 Westport home, his willowy blonde widow, Janet, a beautiful former model, sobbed: "I will never believe the insinuations they are making about him. I will never believe them."

On eight previous occasions during a decade, bombs have been planted aboard commercial airliners, with a loss of 99 lives. But never did the potential for mass disaster in such plots reach the magnitude of this case.

For the lawyer, along with his fellow-passengers, originally was booked aboard a Boeing 707 jet flight, canceled at the last minute. A bomb, if exploded aboard this huge, ultramodern airliner, could have claimed more than 100 lives.

There were perplexing factors in Frank's background.

Frank lived well. He lived well on what was de-

Evacuation Of Personnel From Ice Floe Completed

FAIRBANKS, Alaska (AP) — With a bright arctic moon overhead and a string of flare pots flickering along the runway, a big transport plane lifted off Station Charley Friday to complete the dramatic evacuation of the rapidly disintegrating ice scientific station.

Aboard the four-engine evacuation transport from Sewart Air Force Base, Tenn., were four military personnel, last of some 30 scientists and military men who set up camp on the remote ice floe last May to study the depths and currents of the Arctic Ocean about 440 miles northwest of Barrow, Alaska.

"We were mighty glad to get off," said Capt. James F. Smith of Meers, Okla. after landing in 45 degrees below zero cold at Ladd Air Force Base here. "There was no fear that we might not get off, but you might say there was a little concern that ice fog might settle over the floe and delay our evacuation."

Landing with Capt. Smith were

NEXT TO GODLINESS

Soap became a part of his daily life long before he understood its use. He's still more concerned with its bubbles than its cleansing properties—but he knows soap is mighty important.

And no one ever thought of postponing his bath until he was old enough to make decisions for himself!

Wise parents never postpone a child's religious training. Long before he is able to reason, he needs the character-building and guidance of the Church. Christianity should become important to him in his daily experience before its truths can be fully grasped by his mind.

We are fortunate that our churches are equipped to instill a vital Christian faith in the youngest child. Fortunate is the boy or girl whose parents begin his religious training in their church's Nursery or Beginners' Department.

THE CHURCH FOR ALL... ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

Demand For Paper Expected To Double

A United Nations survey of world paper supplies shows a remarkable demand for paper, particularly that used in newspapers, in recent years and a projected demand for the next 15 years which producers may be hard pressed to meet. North America and Western Europe, the largest producers and consumers of newsprint, will benefit most from the demand and face the most problems in trying to meet it.

In the last 20 years, paper consumption has increased by 125 per cent and it is expected to double again by 1975. Four-fifths of this increased output will have to come from West Europe and North America, about one-half of it from this hemisphere. If production is to keep up with the demand, an estimated investment of one billion dollars annually will be needed for the next five years and more thereafter.

Paper is, of course, one of the basic products of society, and is geared closely to population growth. Particular note is made of increased newsprint demands, especially in the regions of the world still suffering from high rates of illiteracy. Africa and South America were found by members of the UN Food and Agriculture Organization to be among the relatively small consumers of newsprint which were increasing their use at a fast pace.

Canada and the United States enjoy the advantages of literacy to a greater extent than any other region of the world and correspondingly account for 38 per cent of total paper usage in newspapers, magazines and other printed material. Some doubts have been expressed as to the ability of paper producers to keep up with the rapidly increasing demand.

North America will bear most of the responsibility for seeing that no eager mind searching for knowledge shall be denied for lack of paper.

The Apathetic Age

How long can folks talk the same stuff and not get tired of it? That is the question that bothers the Russian Communist Party. It also bothers all the American Communists. It also bothers the anti-Communists and the anti-anti-Communists. So they get apathetic.

The youth of Russia are apathetic and their overlords write a 7,000 word ukase to tell them not to be. We do not go in quite for anything that size. We do some Progressive Jazz or sharpen a Beatnik note here and there. So what?

Youth everywhere wants to know what it is all about. This is a curious age which I, who tell it straight, can fathom for the kids. Some in my line are younger than I am but they got lost getting old. They do not realize that when old folks die others take their places and the others have brains, too. We had to read Milton and Shakespeare and know all about kings and such. The kids read about atoms and x's and y's and say it will all blow up one day. So what? That's the chorus, that so what?

And that is what we oldsters have to answer when asked. We cannot just say that the youngsters are dopes. How can they be dopes if they can add an x and a y and make a missile that hits the moon? We never could hit the moon. We could only sing about the moon and rhyme it with spoon, but the youngsters they dug deep in that spoon stuff and say, what's spoon got to do with moon? Freud said it isn't so and Freud must know because he was scientific and if you're not scientific, how can you ever hit the moon?

So you ask, who wants to hit the moon and what comes from hitting it except that if you can hit the moon you can sure hit Moscow, if that's what you want to do. But if the Russians can hit the moon, they sure can hit New York.

That's cool, man! Those Americans, they can't even speak rough to Castro — will they do anything about Russian missile practice in the Pacific? Why not practice on the moon? Why so? The moon is cold. Honolulu, capital of the 50th State of the Union, that's some place with hibiscus and hula hula girls and Harry Bridges and all that goo.

What a lovely place for commissars to winter themselves! Far better than down in the Crimea where Stalin loved to go to warm his frozen blood.

So we, youngsters, are apathetic! We have heard since we were born that Lenin is the biggest guy on Earth since God made Adam, which Lenin said was opium for the masses. All right! So that's opium for the masses. So what do you want to make of it? You want the masses should chuck God and be without opium? All right! So what do you pay? Good food? Swell clothes? Pretty chicks? What does one get instead of opium for the masses? Karl Marx, with his whiskers sticking out all over? Is that the reward for giving up everything else?

It's like getting excited over who's to be President, Nixon or Kennedy, Symington or Humphrey, or maybe Stevenson who talks like he once read a book. What's to get excited about? Here it's like this: over there, they have Khrushchev and he lives without competition. So, what makes him a champ without competition? If there is no competition, how does he know he's good? If there were only one fiddler in the whole world, who would go to a concert?

I ask questions. You answer. The world is growing cold about politics and economics and war and peace and who is bigger and who is smaller. The world is tired of alibis and explanations and great causes and politicians.

This is not the best generation; it is the tired generation. Maybe that is why Khrushchev and Eisenhower travel so much. They want to go to underdeveloped places where people are hungry but not tired. They still want to hear them cheer—hear them scream their heads off. Not that cold, worn, tired, bored Progressive Jazz played on a bass fiddle.

We are not beat yet. We are only tired of politics and politicians. Still and all, who you gonna vote for? Copyright, 1960, King Features Syndicate, Inc.

Partisan Bickering Over Defense Spending

By David Lawrence

WASHINGTON — President Eisenhower at his press conference Wednesday brought into focus a question that has been worrying many people—just why some politicians are becoming so anxious to prove the alleged inadequacy of our defenses.

The President rightly declares this isn't a partisan matter at all.

"I don't have to be partisan," he said, "and I want to tell you this: I've spent my life in this, and I know more about it than almost anybody. I think, that is in the country, because I have given my life to it, and on a basis of doing what is good for the government and for the country."

"I believe that the matter of defense has been handled well and efficiently in the proposals that will be before the Congress within a matter of a day or so. And I think those people that are trying to make defense a partisan matter are doing a disservice to the United States."

These words have been long overdue. For many months the politicians have been spreading alarms to the effect that "Russia is ahead of us." The implication is that the United States is inferior in a military sense. Indeed one of the newsmen at the President's press conference said that "some critics of the Administration's defense program" were saying that, in future talks with Nikita Khrushchev, Mr. Eisenhower "would be at a disadvantage because of the prospect that the United States will be second best in the missile field."

Time and again the President and high officials of the government have given public assurance that the United States may be ahead in some weapons and behind in others but that, from an over-all standpoint, this country is not inferior in a military sense to any country in the world. The President said:

"I believe in the United States"

power, and I believe it is there, not to be used, but to make certain that the other fellow doesn't use his; and I am not in the slightest degree disturbed by such a possibility as you speak of."

The United States has ample deterrent power. It can destroy an enemy. The degree of its destructive power is arguable, just as is the power of any other country. But Mr. Eisenhower is a loyal American with a military background. If he thought for one moment that, by the expenditure of larger and larger sums, America's defenses would be materially better than they are today, he would not hesitate to urge such spending. He knows the military problems of a world war. He has commanded the biggest armed forces ever assembled. He knows strategy.

Yet President Eisenhower's attitude toward defense is questioned by partisans who wish to make political capital out of it. Likewise, his judgment is questioned by many who have a particular weapon or service viewpoint to advance. Few people know all sides of the defense problem, and certainly only a man inside the government with access to the confidential reports of the free world's intelligence agencies can size up the meaning of all the claims as to whether Russia is ahead and by how much and what it would mean if there were a war today or five years from now.

The pressure for military spending is perennial. It has gone

Some U. S. Businessmen, Officials Began Forgiving Nazis Too Soon

By Drew Pearson

WASHINGTON — When anti-Semitism becomes so firmly embedded in a nation that 6,000,000 Jews are murdered, firm measures are necessary to stamp out any return of anti-Semitism as a national policy. Such measures were officially adopted by the allied governments immediately after V-E Day.

However, shortly after V-E Day, American businessmen with previous investments in Germany, together with some American officials sympathetic to these business interests, began undercutting this policy. It also became fashionable to hob-nob with former Nazis and invite them to the USA. The effect, whether realized or not, was to restore many high Nazis to key offices and discourage German schools from teaching the tragedy of Hitler's anti-Semitism.

Here is more of the history of what happened in postwar Germany which may well have influenced the wave of anti-Semitism breaking out today:

FRATERNIZING WITH NAZIS When German war criminals were on trial at Nuremberg, Mrs. James Morris of Bismarck, N. D., wife of Judge Morris, frequently invited Baroness von Schnitzler to the U. S. Army PX, despite the fact that the latter's husband was in jail awaiting trial.

Judge Curtis G. Shake of Knox County, Ind., who presided at the trial of I. G. Farben executives, guilty of conducting one of the slave labor camps, invited several of I. G. Farben's German attorneys to dinner at the Grand Hotel. This column, 11/12/48).

VISITS TO USA — Baron Alfred Krupp, friend of Adolf Hitler, was sentenced to 12 years for plundering the industries of France and Germany and using Jewish slave labor. However, when he wanted to come to the USA afterward, his picture was featured on the cover of Time magazine, he was given a sympathetic write-up, and special intervention was made at the Justice Department to get him into the USA.

The law specifically forbids the entry of an alien who "at any time" has been a "member of any totalitarian party." Yet Herbert Brownell, then Attorney General, made a special exception when it came to Nazi war criminal Krupp. (10/13/57)

FRIENDS OF AMERICAN BUSINESS — Among the first American civilians arriving in Germany after V-E Day were three vice presidents of International Telephone and Telegraph—Mark Sandstrum, Frank Page, and K. B. Stockford, the latter dressed in a U. S. Army uniform. The men they conferred with were Baron Kurt von Schroeder, the big banker who financed Hitler, and Dr. Gerhard Westrick, the Hitler agent who came to the United States in 1940 to urge American business leaders to keep the United States neutral.

These two powerful Nazi figures were not then prisoners, but lived in a German castle — thanks to their friendship with American business. The American military gave the I.T. and T. executives free rein to travel through Germany and confer with Nazi businessmen just a few weeks after the war ended. (11/1/46)

UNDERCUTTING THE WAR TRIALS — During the Nazi war crime trials, Gen. Telford Taylor, brilliant prosecutor at Nuremberg, was summoned home because of opposition by high-placed GOP Congressmen. GOP Congressmen John Taber (New York) and Richard Wigglesworth (Mass.), both members of the Appropriations Committee, were especially critical.

When they summoned Gen. Kenneth Royall, Truman's Secretary of the Army, he discouraged further war trials.

"Last August we eliminated approximately three-fourths of the cases," he told Congressmen. "When I went over there (Germany) I approved the elimination. The reason they were not entirely stopped was that General Clay felt, and convinced me, that to stop suddenly would create a disparity between people who had been de-Nazified and those who had not."

"It is very much of a headache, I think," remarked Taber. "I had very firm views against the whole approach to it originally," agreed the Secretary of the Army. "No additional war crimes trials will be held except those now in process."

"What would happen if we just pulled the curtain down tomorrow," asked Rep. Wigglesworth, "and said 'no more money'?"

"I don't think it would be terribly serious if we stopped them at all," said Secretary Royall. (4/30/48)

KILLING PROBE OF PRE-WAR GUILT — Shortly after V-E Day, Sen. Harley Kilgore of West Virginia was appointed chairman of a Senate committee to investigate Americans who had collaborated with the Nazis before the war.

The U. S. Army, interviewing German prisoners, had uncovered amazing evidence of the manner in which certain high-placed Americans had played into the hands of the Nazis. This led not only to a Senate investigation but a probe by the Justice Department under Assistant Attorney General John Rogge. So much pressure was brought to bear, however, that the Rogge report was suppressed and the Kilgore investigation eventually evaporated.

This is part of the story of how some Americans rushed in to curry favor with the Nazis after the war, thereby helping sow the seeds of what is happening today. (Copyright, 1960, By The Bell Syndicate)

The Lazard Fund

By Leslie Gould

NEW YORK — The Lazard Fund — launched 18 months ago with $117,937,500 capital, now $148,807,090, has made some interesting changes in the investment portfolio.

The Fund has been buying some oils — in "disregard" of "current market pessimism" — adding 15,000 shares to its holdings of Texaco, and 3,000 shares to its Royal Dutch stake and buying Shell Oil, 15,000 shares.

Also, it has added to its holdings of copper and nickel shares — Miami Copper and International Nickel and a new investment in American Smelting, 23,000 shares, and in Falconbridge Nickel Mines, Ltd., 32,000 shares.

Another new investment was in American Brake Shoe, 20,000 shares.

The investment fund added to its investment in Aetna Life — buying 2,167 shares, Glenn Falls Insurance — buying 2,000 shares, and Travelers, acquiring 4,000 more. But it sold its 2,000 shares, and Travelers, acquiring 4,000 more. But it sold out its 2,000 share holding in Connecticut General Life.

Two other additions were 3,800 Firestone Tire and 5,000 Johnsonville.

Eight stocks were eliminated—50,000 Santa Fe; 20,000 Inland Steel; 2,000 Michelin; 15,000 Scott Paper; 1,500 Societe des Usines Chimiques Rhone-Poulenc; 10,000 Texas Utilities, and 25,750 Union Oil & Gas of Louisiana "A" shares.

Some of the reductions were: 5,000 Jones & Laughlin; 1,000 Manufactures de Saint-Gobain; 5,000 Owens-Corning Fiberglass; 7,500 Reynolds Metal; 20,000 Steel Co. of Wales, Ltd., and Tennessee Corp.

Lazard's policy is for longer capital gains, rather than profits from trading and to concentrate on a few substantial holdings rather than scattered individual investments and what the managers call "excessive diversification." Hence, the interest in its investment decisions.

This is a policy that takes time to carry out, so the test of this lies in the months ahead.

On the portfolio changes, chairman Albert J. Hettlinger Jr. and president Richard H. Mansfield explain American smelting was purchased on "long-run rather than immediate considerations; emphasis is shifting from refining to production." The report also notes the company's large investment in Peruvian and Australian mines, as well as in the aluminum industry through Revere Copper & Brass.

On the oils the Fund's managers believe the industry is adjusting itself to an economy of readily available rather than scarce crude supplies and at the same time is increasing internal efficiency. The latter doesn't apply to all oils — yet.

While generally optimistic, the Fund's managers warn that in the international balance of payments the U.S. on current account is spending more than it is earning, saying:

"Accustomed in the post-war world to read of the defense of the pound, the franc or the mark, with devaluation the penalty of defeat, it is difficult to realize that the dollar itself must be defended."

The managers expect further gains in business in 1960 from capital spending by business, a better auto year, rebuilding steel inventories and high levels of consumer incomes. They warn:

"A persistent and seemingly accelerating rise in the cost of living, the unsolved problems in labor-management relations, and our unsatisfactory fiscal position, inter-related, constitute as yet unsolved major maladjustments."

Why Do Some People Always Have A 'Cold'?

By Dr. Theodore R. Van Dellen

I. M. G. writes: "A young man of 26 has a cold every year, lasting from fall until spring. He is not bothered in the summer time. Have you any suggestions about eliminating his colds, which prevent him from doing as much as he would like to do?"

Most people have at least two or three simple respiratory infections each year. Some have one after another, and a few are bothered constantly. These individuals usually have an allergy or a focus of infection in the sinuses, tonsils, or adenoid tissue that keeps the disorder alive. Thorough examination is needed to make these determinations. Removal of infected tonsils, for example, may solve this man's problem.

On the other hand, seasonal colds frequently are traced to allergy or to irritation from atmospheric conditions that exist during the cold season. More dust and other pollutants are present in the air during the winter, especially in cities. The particles irritate the membranes and the constant flow of secretions is considered a cold.

There is less ventilation in buses and subways during the winter months and the commuter is bound to inhale someone's germs. These situations are difficult to avoid unless it is possible to move to another climate or change the working habits.

The dry, steam heated apartment is the nemesis of others. The nasal membranes are better able to resist the cold viruses when they are moist. Using a humidifier or placing pans of water on the radiators helps correct this situation. Overtreatment also prolongs a cold, especially when the individual continues to use strong nose drops long after they are needed. In these cases, stopping all medicine eradicates the cause of congestion.

Meanwhile, the young man in question ought to maintain a high degree of resistance by getting ample sleep and avoiding over-exertion, emotional strain, sudden changes in temperature, and too much alcohol. Cold and flu shots are advisable to protect against a few of the organisms that produce respiratory diseases. Thyroid extract will be helpful if a deficiency of this hormone exists.

AMEBIASIS H. F. writes: Is a special diet needed in an amebic infection?

REPLY No. Drugs that kill these intestinal micro-organisms will prove far more effective in treatment. Send a stamped, self-address envelope for leaflet on amebic dysentery.

SHRINKING AND LEMON M. G. writes: I have heard that if you drink the juice of a lemon every morning it will shrink the stomach. Is this true?

REPLY No. The stomach contains an acid that is many times stronger than that in lemon juice, so why would it shrink the organ?

DIET IN ANEMIA J. K. writes: Is diet of any value in pernicious anemia?

REPLY Yes, especially foods rich in iron and vitamin B12, such as liver and other meat. But, to keep pernicious anemia under control, more than diet is needed. Injections of liver and vitamin B12 often are essential.

BENIGN TUMORS J. L. writes: Are lipomas considered malignant?

REPLY No. These fatty tumors are innocent.

WINE AND WHEEZING D. L. writes: Doesn't drinking wine every day make asthma worse?

REPLY Alcohol increases congestion. In this respect the asthmatic is better off without it. A few sips are permissible, especially if the drink leads to relaxation and does not contain substances to which the individual is allergic.

To the limit of space questions pertaining to the prevention of disease will be answered. Personal replies will be made upon return stamped envelope is inclosed (journalism inquiries not accepted). Dr. Van Dellen will not make diagnoses or prescribe for individual cases.

Try And Stop Me

By Bennett Cerf

Alex Atkinson, an intrepid Englishman, has managed to write a guide book about the U.S.A. without ever having been here in his life! "By Rocking Chair Across America," he calls it, and extremely funny it is, too.

Of New York City he writes, "The Dutch, rather surprisingly, were persuaded to buy the place from the aborigines for some beads they happened to have, and later the British introduced street lighting. Today a chap can live there in a duplex penthouse with two air-conditioned rumpus rooms (his and hers) and an uninterrupted view of a tree in Brooklyn."

"In the Florida Everglades," notes Atkinson, "the Seminoles live midst palm trees, water lilies, and the powerful launches of documentary film makers."

Atkinson claims as his greatest catch a studios mountaineer named Zeke, aged 103, who has spent the last 48 years poring over a 1911 copy of the Louisville Courier that blew into his cabin during a violent thunderstorm. "We don't have such effective newspaper distribution in England," laments Atkinson.

Dr. Alta Schrock Outlines Work Of Penn Alps

FROSTBURG — By displaying hand-crafted articles and explaining briefly the producers involved, Dr. Alta Schrock illustrated the purposes of the Penn Alps Corporation when she addressed the Crafts Group of the AAUW this week at Lowndes Hall.

Penn Alps on the Casselman, according to Dr. Schrock, is enriched by the history of the plant facilities and buildings as they have intrinsic historical worth. At the present, Penn Alps has over 100 producers whose articles are available through the outlets which are now offered by the corporation. Dr. Schrock outlined some of the future possibilities of Penn Alps in providing small industry for area people, affording "living museums" for tourists, and serving as an outlet for not only the native handicrafts of the region but also the cooking and culture of the mountain people of this Tri-State area.

Life magazine featured an article on Dr. Schrock and her accomplishments in Botany when she was at American University, and she is a recognized writer on botanical subjects. After World War II, she worked with rehabilitation of refugees through the World Council of Churches with much of her work centering in Trieste, Italy. Following this she became dean of women at Bluffton College, Bluffton, Ohio. Her most recent collegiate position has been at Goshen, Indiana, where she taught Biology. She has taken leave of absence to devote herself to the Penn Alps Corporation.

Following the meeting, refreshments were served with Mrs. Robert Hager, chairman of the Crafts Group, Mrs. Frank Munson and Mrs. John Frazee in charge, with Mrs. Fred Morton making arrangements for the speaker.

A mosaics demonstration by Mrs. Robert Miller will feature the next meeting February 8 at 8 p. m. at Lowndes Hall. All persons interested in crafts are invited to attend.

Knights Drop 52-51 Game To Campers

Bruce Wins Over Mt. Savage, 77-63; Beall Triumphs

| WMI STANDINGS | W | L | Pct.  |

| Bruce         | 3 | 0 | 1.000 |
| Allegany      | 3 | 0 | 1.000 |

| Fort Hill     | 0 | 3 | .000  |

By TED TRONELL

Some time clutch play by Allegany in the closing seconds last night gave the Campers a 52-51 victory over Valley in a Western Maryland Interscholastic League game played before an estimated 1500 fans at Campobello.

The victory, fifth in a row for Coach Chester Payne's Campers, kept them in a tie for the league lead with Bruce's Bulldogs, who downed Mt. Savage, 77-63. Allegany and Bruce now own league records of 3-0, while Valley stands at 2-1 after last night's setback. In a game involving cellar clubs, Beall stopped Fort Hill, 70-62.

Valley's defending champions led by as much as 11 points in the second period, but blew their seemingly comfortable lead in the third quarter, in which they were outscored, 19-7, and fell behind, 40-36.

The Knights regained the upper hand in the final quarter, when a jump shot by sophomore Danny Young and a pair of free throws by Bill Garlitz shoved them in front, 51-48, with two minutes left to play.

Gaffney Comes Through

Bobby Gaffney scored only two points all evening, but they came at a most opportune time—with 55 seconds left and the Campers trailing by three.

A field goal by Mervin Pope at the 1:15 mark was called back for a traveling violation to give Alco's waning hopes a jolt, but Garlitz found Gaffney 20 seconds later, and the muscular junior canned both tries to make it 51-50.

Following Gaffney's successful free throws, Valley took possession but lost the ball out of bounds in the back court, and Allegany took a time out to map strategy. The Campers, rather than gamble by waiting until the last few seconds to attempt a game-winning field goal, elected to fire away at the first opportunity. Gary Mulligan hit on a jumper from the side with 38 seconds remaining.

Knights Muff Chance

Valley got just one more chance to pull the game out of the fire. Garlitz, who sparked the Knights' first half drive but seemed to lose his touch after intermission, attempted a jump shot from near the foul circle, but Mervin Pope, whose rebounding was a big factor in the Allegany victory, pulled the ball off the board, and with it Valley's chance of coming out on top. Wayne Shook was fouled with five seconds left, and although he missed the try, Allegany controlled the ball until the buzzer sounded.

At times during the first half it appeared as if Coach Johnny Meyers' club would turn the game into a rout. Paced by the basketballing of Garlitz and Jim Getty, the Knights midway in the second period built up a 25-14 advantage.

Pope, who scored 14 points to lead the Campers, collected 10 of them in the third period, when Allegany completely reversed their lackadaisical first half performance. Mulligan and Shook came through with 13 points apiece, and the latter cager also excelled with his playmaking.

Garlitz Scores 19

Garlitz was the only Valley player to hit in double figures, accounting for 19 points on five field goals and a 9-12 effort at the free throw line.

A packed house at Mt. Savage saw once-beaten Bruce roll to its third straight triumph. The Bulldogs led by one point, 16-15, as the first period ended, but increased this margin to 38-28 at intermission.

Pivotalman Bob Wilson scored 21 points and hauled in 25 rebounds to spark the Westernport crew. All of Bruce's starters scored in double figures. Fay Otten and Dick Lybarger tallied 23 and 20 points, respectively, for the losers.

Fort Hill's luckless Sentinels continued their tailspin last night, losing to Beall, and now share the last place spot in the WMI with Mt. Savage, each with 0-3 marks.

Chet Carter and Jim Evans shared 37 points to lead the Mountaineers (1-2), while George Twigg and Dave Baldwin scored 19 and 16, respectively, for the Sentinels.

John Meyers Will Receive D.D. Plaque

Honor Valley Coach At Dinner Jan. 31

JOHN C. MEYERS

A coach whose teams have won five state Class "B" championships in the past ten years and seven consecutive Allegany county soccer titles will be among those receiving awards at the 12th annual dinner of the Cumberland Dapper Dan Club, which will be held at St. Mary's Church Hall, Oldtown Road, on Sunday, January 31.

John C. Meyers, coach of Central High School and Valley High School teams for 13 years, will receive a "special achievement" plaque in recognition of his fine coaching record. Last year his Valley cagers won the W.M.I. League championship with a 9-1 record and then went on to capture state honors at College Park for the third time in five years. After taking the county Class "B" crown, the Black Knights whipped Northern of Garrett county, Brunswick, Surrattsville, Rising Sun and Aberdeen in their march to the state title. Valley wound up with a 24-2 record.

Started At Central

In 1958 and 1955, Valley lost in the state semi-finals. Meyers took Central High quints of Lonaconing to three state basketball tournaments and the Tigers emerged winners in 1952 and 1950 and lost out in the finals in 1951. Bruce High was the county's standard bearer in 1953 and 1954 and went all the way both years. Beall High copped the first Class "B" state title in 1949.

In his 12 years as cage mentor, 1948-1959, six at Central and six at Valley, Meyers' teams have won 197 and lost 84 games for a .701 average.

Valley has won eight soccer titles outright and shared the honors with Bruce in 1958. Counting the two county crowns his teams won at Central in 1949 and 1950, Meyers has tutored nine winners, an all-time record for that sport. Since Valley entered the WMI League in 1953, Meyers' booters have won 44 games, lost two and played 10 ties. His teams had gone 32 consecutive games (4 wins, 10 ties) without defeat until the final game of the 1959 season when Beall spilled the Knights at Frostburg, 4-3. Valley is undefeated at home for seven straight years, boasting a record of 25 wins and three ties.

Past Winners

Special achievement awards in past years have gone to William P. Hahn and John J. "Bobby" Cavanaugh, Fort Hill High School coaches.

Walter L. Bowers, former Allegany High School mentor, will receive a plaque in recognition of his 29 years of service as tutor of county and state championship quints.

Jim Crawford, product of Fort Hill High School, and guard on the University of Miami football team, will be the recipient of the plaque which goes annually to the athlete who publicizes Cumberland nationally.

Profit from the annual dinner will go toward the benefit of the Allegany County League for Crippled Children.

Mickey Wright Leads Tourney

SEA ISLAND, Ga. (AP)—Mickey Wright, defending champion, Friday made a bid for repeat honors with a 37-36-73 opening round in the Sea Island Ladies Invitational Open golf tournament.

The tall, blonde San Diego, Calif., links wizard took a one-stroke lead over Kathy Cornelius of Springfield, Ohio, and Fay Crocker of Montevideo, Uruguay, both had 74s.

Trailing the leaders were Marlene Hagge, Delray Beach, Fla., with 37-38-75 and Jo Ann Prentice, Birmingham, Ala., Marilyn Smith, Wichita, Kan., and Patty Berg, St. Andrews, Ill., all with 37-40-77.

Two pre-tournament favorites, Betsy Rawls, of Spartanburg, S.C., and Louise Suggs of Atlanta, apparently faded out of competition in the three-day, 54-hole medal play.

Miss Rawls shot a 38-41-79 and Miss Suggs fell to a 40-40-80.

Potomac Five Posts Seventh Straight Win

Trims Montgomery College, 83-57; Allen Scores 27

Potomac State College registered its seventh straight victory and made its record 6-0 in the Tri-State Junior College Conference by trimming Montgomery Junior College of Takoma Park, Md., last night at Keyser by the score of 83-57.

Coach Dana "Horse" Lough's floormen have an overall mark of 9-4 for the current campaign.

John Allen, hot shot from Fayetteville, W. Va., scored 27 points for the Catamounts on 10 field goals and 7-9 at the free throw line. Fred Spicer with 16 tallies was the leading scorer for Montgomery while Tom Sheehan took runner-up honors with 11 markers.

The score was knotted at 3, 5, 6, 11 and 13 in the first half and then the Catamounts pulled ahead to stay.

Montgomery lost Spicer via the personal fouls route.

Potomac outscored the visitors 27 to 24 from the field and hooped 29 out of 41 free throws to M.J.C.'s 9-out-of-20.

The loss was the first of the season in the conference for Montgomery, Box.

West Virginia And Villanova Quints Tangle

Unbeaten Wildcats
Visit Morgantown

MORGANTOWN, W. Va. (UPI)—West Virginia's once-beaten, third-ranked Mountaineers face one of their most formidable obstacles in their effort to keep their long home victory string intact when they meet undefeated Villanova Saturday night.

West Virginia, 14-1 on the season after a 102-81 trouncing of Virginia Wednesday at Charleston, W. Va., is favored to halt the Villanova win streak at 10. The Wildcats are one of only two major unbeaten teams left in the nation.

West Virginia and Villanova have met no common opponents. West Virginia, losing only to California, has beaten Tennessee, Citadel, Furman twice, Richmond, Penn State twice, VMI, St. Louis, Kentucky, Stanford, UCLA, William & Mary and Virginia.

Villanova's wins came over Princeton, Scranton, Gettysburg, Clemson, North Carolina State, Wagner, Boston College, Duquesne, Muhlenberg, and Temple.

West Virginia has won 38 straight games on its home floor and the closest any team has come to the Mountaineers here this season is 15 points.

In Memoriam
In loving memory of our beloved husband, father, brother, Walter Younger, who was killed 2 years ago today, Jan. 16, 1958.
The loss was hard, the shock severe. We never thought his death so near. Only those who have lost can tell. The pain of parting without farewell. He little thought when leaving home. That he would never return. That he would be in death would sleep. And leave us here to mourn. God knows how much we miss him. We still have you in our hearts. Loving thoughts shall ever wander. To the spot where he is laid. Sadly missed by his wife, children, sisters and brothers.
In loving memory of our beloved husband and father, John W. Snyder, who died 2 years ago today, Jan. 16, 1958. Your memory to us is a keepsake. With which we'll never part. Though God has us in his keeping. We still have you in our hearts. John, if we shed a secret tear. And often breathe a sigh. Pray for us, for we miss you more. As another year goes by. LOVING WIFE AND SON.

Stock Market Finishes On Slightly Lower Level

NEW YORK (UPI) — The stock market finished on a slightly lower ground Friday in a session that was nip and tuck all the way. A week-end profit-taking developed in the closing minutes to convert what might have been a modest gain into a nominal net loss.

The market extended Thursday's advance at the opening. There was a burst of buying in the initial hour and for a time it looked as though the list was about to duplicate Thursday's performance.

There was generally the same support for the stocks in the early trading as on Thursday when active buying enabled the market to snap a skin of six straight losses. But late profit-taking — heavy in the blue chips — gave the list a ragged appearance.

The industrial stock average, which rose 4.09 points on Thursday, finished the day off 0.85.

Failure of the Federal Reserve Board to raise the discount rate at its meeting Thursday was an encouraging sign for traders in the early trading, brokers noted.

Of the stocks included in the averages, DuPont showed a loss

Chicago Grains

CHICAGO (UPI)—Grain futures prices were mixed Friday on the Chicago Board of Trade.

At the final bell, wheat was up 1/4 to 1 1/2; corn up 1/4 to 1/2; oats unchanged to 1/4; soybeans unchanged to 1/4.

Trading in wheat was light and consisted mostly of spreading from March to May deliveries. Prices were firm. The market opened with commission, house and local selling, but prices recovered on scattered buying.

Corn was mostly firm. Export and cash houses were early buyers of March and May. Commercial interests were on both sides of the market. Local traders sold March when prices rose. Rail receipts were estimated at 51 cars, but the weather was expected to hamper movement.

Export subsidies were granted on 500,000 bushels of corn.

The oats market was inactive and steady. There were offers of March slightly above the market price.

Rye futures were mostly easier on some liquidation and stop loss selling. The Winnipeg Exchange was also lower.

Soybean prices fell more than a cent early in the session, but rallied on buying on resting orders began. Prices were easy at the close. Commission house trade was mixed. Most of the early selling was local.

Soybean meals were easy, but oil firms.

Reports said Korea bought 4,000 tons of white wheat, Israel 20,000 tons of hard wheat, and Germany 9,000 tons of soft wheat. Outside markets were mixed.

Boat Law, Pay Hikes Weighed By Legislators

Senator, Delegates Hear Proposals

A 10 per cent pay increase for all state employees, especially those hired by the State Roads Commission, proposed boating regulations on Deep Creek Lake and a suggestion that Maryland adopt a gross income tax were presented to State Senator Charles M. See and the six members of the Allegany County Delegation in the House of Delegates in a lengthy session last night at the Court House.

William Goldsborough and George Jenkins served as the chief spokesmen for the SRC employees, 12 of whom attended last night's session with the legislators from Allegany County.

Mr. Jenkins informed the legislators that a 10 per cent pay raise for all state employees would cost about $7 million. He explained that the SRC employees were not satisfied with the James Committee recommendation which would benefit only about 6,000 state employees.

He also stressed that the recommendations of Russell S. Davis, state commissioner of personnel, do not constitute a cost-of-living pay increase which he believes all state employees should get. His recommendations are merely classification adjustments and do not cover enough job classifications, Mr. Jenkins added.

Delegation Sympathetic

Special stress was given to the fact that the top pay for unclassified laborers of the SRC is $1.48 an hour and any overtime pay is on the regular hourly rate.

The delegation appeared generally sympathetic to the proposed wage increase. Senator See pointed out that if an overall wage increase of the type suggested last night is passed and Governor J. Millard Tawes does not include the necessary funds, it cannot become effective before July 1, 1961.

Governor Tawes has been quoted as endorsing the James Committee recommendations, and so apparently will include the necessary funds to implement these proposals in his budget. Mr. Jenkins conceded that the James Committee recommendations would be better than nothing but do not benefit the lowest paid employees.

On the boating discussion, there did not appear unanimity of opinion among the nine representatives who met with the legislators. Harold Sweeney, who began the discussion, handed Senator See and the six Delegates copies of 11 suggested regulations for boating on Deep Creek Lake but declined to give a copy to the newspaperman present.

Regulations Aired

Delegate Fred B. Driscoll, chairman of the County Delegation, brought out three of the suggested regulations in a brief discussion. These were a prohibition against buzzing one boat by another, a prohibition against any person under the age of 14 operating a motorboat with more than 10 horsepower and the necessity of having life saving equipment aboard each boat.

Outstanding Farmer Being Sought By Jaycees

The Cumberland Junior Association of Commerce is searching for the outstanding young farmer of Allegany County.

John Yoder, committee chairman, said last night that at least six young farmers have indicated they will take part in the contest which is being sponsored for the first time in the county by the Jaycees.

Joseph M. Steger, Allegany County farm agent, is giving the committee a hand in the search for the outstanding young farmer.

Any other young farmers who are interested may obtain a nomination blank from Mr. Yoder. Mr. Steger or from William McKee and William Light, members of the committee.

Deadline for entries is January 28 and the judging is expected to be completed by the following Saturday. In order to qualify for the award, nominees must be between the ages of 21 and 35, not becoming 36 before January 1 preceding the national awards banquet in which they will be considered.

Nominees need not be Jaycees to enter, according to Mr. Yoder, who said they must be actual farm operators, deriving a minimum of two-thirds of their income from farming.

Winner selection on all contest levels will be based on degree of progress in the agricultural career, extent of good soil and natural resource conservation practices, and significance of contributions made to the well-being of the community, state and nation — as individuals or through leadership in civic, farm, church, fraternal or other organizations.

Building Canopy Is Going Up On Store Building

A wooden canopy is being erected by the contractor for the new store building going up at 100 Baltimore Street.

Completion of the protective structure will enable crews to begin work on the second story walls along North Centre Street and the Baltimore Street face of the building.

The $90,000 structure is being erected by the Leonard Pevar Company, Pottstown, Pa., and will provide space for two retail stores.

Such canopies are required to protect pedestrians from falling objects during construction or demolition projects.

City officials said the canopy will be erected over the Baltimore Street and North Centre Street faces of the building.

The 50-by-100-foot, two-story brick and concrete block building is being erected on the site of old St. Paul's Lutheran Church.

U.S. Official Is Plaintiff In Odd Suit

Attorney General Rogers Is Named

An unusual equity suit in which U. S. Attorney General William P. Rogers is one of the plaintiffs was filed yesterday in Allegany County Circuit Court by Attorney James Alfred Avirett.

The object of the suit is the sale of certain real estate in LaVale and the distribution of funds to the owners, including Mr. Rogers, who in his official capacity, owns a 50 per cent interest in the property as successor to the Alien Property Custodian.

At stake is property which was owned by Charles N. Thomsen of Allegany County at the time of his death nearly 44 years ago — on March 22, 1916. Under terms of his will, Mr. Thomsen left his widow, Theresa Thomsen, a life interest in his entire estate. Upon her death, one-half of the estate was to go to his brother, Edward Thomsen, and the other one-half to the children of his deceased brother, Henry Thomsen.

When Charles N. Thomsen died in 1916 he owned property at the corner of Williams and Orchard streets in Cumberland which he had acquired from William E. Walsh on December 11, 1895. He also owned property in LaVale, Election District 29, known as Lot No. 4 of the Real Estate and Building Company of Allegany County, which he had bought from the company on July 15, 1911.

To pay the administrative expenses of the estate, it was necessary to sell the Cumberland property, known as the mattress factory property. Theresa A. Thomsen bought the property for $3,200 under a court-ordered sale. After payment of expenses there remained $1,718.69 for which Lena Siever was named trustee for the heirs of Edward Thomsen and the children of Henry Thomsen.

Mrs. Theresa A. Thomsen died June 2, 1941. Her will named George W. Legge and Lena Siever as co-executors. As co-executors they have received from the J. H. Holzshu Company $1,988.85 from rentals of the LaVale property for the heirs of Edward Thomsen.

The Alien Property Custodian, acting under authority of the Trading With The Enemy Act, found after investigation that the heirs of Henry Thomsen were nationals of a designated enemy country, Germany. Therefore, he issued a vesting order January 23, 1945, by which he vested in himself, for the use and benefit of the United States, an individual one-half interest in the LaVale property. The Attorney General, as successor to the Alien Property Custodian, is now the owner of one-half interest in the LaVale property.

For some years, the J. H. Holzshu Company has acted as agent for the United States in renting and managing the LaVale property in question. This company now has $551.94 for the heirs of Edward Thomsen, $246.39 for the United States of America and $75 in a current account.

Living children of Edward Thomsen all live in Germany and two of his grandchildren now live in this country. The German heirs, each entitled to one-fourteenth of the estate, include Elizabeth Christine Wilhelmine Seifert, Heinrich Karl Andreas Thomsen, Emma Helene Dorothea Holtz, Caroline Marie Sophie Bauer and Konran Thomsen, all of Kiel, Germany, and Gertrude Helen Herzfeld, Hamburg-Fuhlebuttel, Germany. Two grandchildren, entitled to one twenty-eighth of the estate, are Edith Roller, New Milford, N. J., and Inga Stein, Washingtonville, N. Y.

Living heirs of Henry Thomsen, who have an interest in one-half of the funds now held by Lena Siever, trustee, are Edward Thomsen, Ronsdorf in Rheinland, Germany; Ranka Schmidt, Hamburg, Germany; Wilhelmine Pruss and Frieda Dethlefsen, (Cont. on Page 2)
